

TRI PHASE ENDURANCE

Stick Packs

PRE WORKOUT ENDURANCE FUEL

PRODUCT INFORMATION

Tri-Phase Endurance is the world's first three stage endurance fuel for the serious athlete. With a healthy mixture of amino acids, electrolytes and our unique blend of fast and slow acting carbs, Tri-Phase keeps you going mile after mile all while helping you buffer lactic acid for improved performance and faster recovery... and with a potent dose of B Vitamins, you can be sure to stay focused and mentally tough. Tri-Phase Endurance is a scientifically designed formula to help the modern athlete achieve success in practice and competition. The patented blend of ingredients allows muscles to push longer, harder and faster, all while delivering the necessary blend of electrolytes and free radical terminating antioxidants.

USAGE

Mix Vitalyte™ and water in the indicated amounts and stir until completely dissolved. To be most effective, do not make more concentrated than directed. Drink cold for faster absorption and better taste.
